

Neckwear Needs.

Lansburgh & Bro

LOOK TO YOUR NEEDS IN NECK DRESSING!

Advance sale of Fall Neckwear. An entirely new line at 25c and 50c.

Nothing so welcome to a gentleman's wardrobe as a few extra neck dressings. At these low figures you can afford to buy a few more than you really need. You will find them handy.

Four-in-hands..... 25c

A large variety of woven patterns in fancy color silk or satins. All full shaped. Also plain black, in excellent quality—plain satin or gro-grain silk.

Plain or Flowing End Tucks..... 25c

Cut from the same materials as the above, made full and large. No skimpy seams—band made to fit the largest neck.

Adjustable Band Bows..... 25c

A new idea in Band Bows for standing collars. Made so the size can be altered—a perfect imitation of a stiffened scarf. Good quality silk or satin in plain black.

Club Ties..... 25c

Full Length Club Ties, with proper size ends—black or fawn—silk or satins. A large variety to select from.

Butterfly Bows..... 25c

A good assortment of different size Black Silk Butterfly Bows for turn-down collars. All made of a high-grade silk.

Our fine line of Neckwear at 50c. All new colorings and designs up to date. Woven figures or latest combinations in stripes. Your choice of De Joinvilles, Tecks, Four-in-Hands, Strings, Bows, Club Knots, etc.

Lansburgh & Bro

420, 422, 424, 426 7th St.

Butterine

Better and purer than butter. Once tried, always used.

SQUARE MARBLE AND GLASS STANDS

CENTER MARKET.

Wilkins & Company

MANUFACTURERS' WHOLESALE DISTRIBUTING AGENTS.

S. Kann, Sons & Co.,

8th and Market Space.

Special Sale of

Ladies', Misses', & Children's

WRAPS

Today.

Open until 9 o'clock tonight

S. Kann, Sons & Co

8th and Market Space.

Feel Badly To-day?

We ask this repeatedly, because serious diseases often follow trifling ailments.

Brown's Iron Bitters

IT CURES
DYSPEPSIA, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, CONSTIPATION, HEMIPLEGIA, WOMEN'S COMPLAINTS.

Get the genuine—It has crossed the lines on the wrapper.
BROWN CHEMICAL CO. BALTIMORE, MD.

MORTON CADETS AS HOSTS

Delightful Hop and Reception Given by the Company.

Mrs. Sternberg's Reception—Potato Party Given by the Ladies' Aid Society and Busy Workers.

The reception and hop given by the Morton Cadets last night at National Rifles' Armory, added one more laurel to their social career.

The hall was draped with the colors of the company, blue and gray, interwoven with patriotic festoons of bunting, while the stage was a bower of chrysanthemums, ferns, roses, and palms.

Nearly 1,500 young people danced through the steps of the program, while the chairs that circled the walls were filled with approving clappers who, at intervals, applauded the gallant youths and pretty maidens who danced on.

The cadets who had the evening charge were: Capt. Edgar A. Shilling, J. Paul Shilling, A. B. Claxton, F. D. Grayson, Milton O. Connell, George Plagge, D. Harry Moran, Ed. E. Muth, R. B. Sisson, E. T. Trallos, Charles Yostman, T. T. Brant, E. Lacy, J. F. Nichols, S. A. Wimsatt, George J. Harris, C. H. Lyman, W. M. Wagner, and E. M. Taylor.

Among the many present were Miss Mabel Chambers, Miss Douch, Miss Dillard, Miss Chambers, Miss Stewart, Miss Boyd, Miss E. Bean, Miss Dancy, Miss Elliott, Miss Edith Macdonald, Mrs. R. W. Fowler, Miss Grace Fowler, Miss Regina Fowler, Miss Marion Byng, Miss C. Emmert, Misses Sander, Miss Bessie Japine, Miss M. Wood, Miss J. Braggins, Miss Ethel Randall, Miss Marie Bell, Miss M. Hoggins, Miss Hoffer, Miss Driver, Miss Plagge, Miss Miller, Miss Hester, Miss Wagner, Miss Spies, Miss Behrens, Miss May Johnson, Miss Kate Johnson, Mrs. A. E. Johnson, Miss Patterson, Capt. Mattingly, St. C. F. Cook, William F. Stebbins, J. E. Mitchell, William West, J. White, W. Richmond, D. P. Moore, G. Reinhardt, J. Exley, E. Selby, A. F. Skinner, H. Q. Brown, F. G. Hendley, R. Zebelman, A. B. Claxton, S. A. Wimsatt, H. R. Cissell, R. Callahan, Bronte Reynolds, F. E. Lacy, C. H. Lyman, Dr. Stewart, Dr. Wagner, Messrs. Moran, Tronworthy, Luckett, Elison, Weed, Beck, Wells, Gasch and Trallos.

The Ladies' Aid Society and Busy Workers' gave a home de terre social last night for the benefit of the chapel of the Advent at the residence of Mrs. A. A. Barry, No. 1909 Second avenue, LeDroit Park. The entertainment opened with an address by Mr. Charles Davies, who made himself exceedingly interesting on the subject of potatoes, followed by Mrs. Hoffield with a song descriptive of the merits of that useful but heretofore unused vegetable.

The song was accompanied by Davies and set to the air of "The Old Oakum Bucket," which she sang in splendid style. Prof. Jeacchan gave a piano selection, and there were duets by Mrs. Harvey and her daughter, Miss Alice and Miss Birdie, and a number of impromptu songs.

In a pretty side room with a polished floor, rows of potatoes were ranged from one wall to the other, each to be picked up with a teaspoon, with prizes at stake for the lucky guest who could secure the greatest number within an allotted time.

Among the members of the society present who had the pretty and successful affair in charge were Mrs. Charles Davies, Mrs. Weyrick, Mrs. Benjamin, Mrs. May, Mrs. Pickford, Mrs. Leitzell, Mrs. Marcy, Mrs. Hendrickson, Mrs. Prince, Mrs. Bond and Miss Wagner.

The Altus Club will give a 5 o'clock tea at their charming home, No. 1806 I street northwest, November 25.

Mrs. Sternberg, wife of Gen. Sternberg, U. S. A., gave a delightful reception at her home, No. 1019 Nineteenth street northwest, yesterday afternoon. The drawing rooms and dining rooms were decorated throughout with chrysanthemums and greenery.

Yellow and white chrysanthemums adorned the table and gold colored shades softened the light of the tapers set in candleholders.

The ladies who assisted Mrs. Sternberg in receiving were Mrs. Hennipill, Miss Norton, Miss Condit, Miss Alden, Miss Davis, Miss Cabell, and Miss Newcomb. Among the numerous callers were: Postmaster General and Mrs. Wilson, Secretary Herbert, Mrs. Mowat, Mrs. Lamont, Miss Justice Fuller, Mrs. Aubrey, Mrs. Justice Field, Mrs. Yang Yu, who was accompanied by her little son, who attracted much attention by his fascinating attempts at English conversation; Mr. Sze, Admiral, and Mrs. Benjamin General, General and Mrs. Hawley, General and Mrs. Miles, Major and Mrs. Parker, Colonel and Mrs. Hayward, Major and Mrs. Jacobs, Captain and Mrs. Tanner, Commander and Mrs. Du Val, Dr. and Mrs. Taber Johnson, Dr. Busby, Dr. and Mrs. Nash, General Card, General Morgan, Dr. and Mrs. Gandy, U. S. A., Dr. and Mrs. N. S. Bates, U. S. A., Mr. and Mrs. Fellew, Mr. and Mrs. Pollak, Col. McKenzie, Miss McKensie, Colonel and Mrs. Alden, General and Mrs. McKee, General and Mrs. Moore, Mrs. McDermott, Mrs. Leonard Wood, and others.

Mrs. L. A. Lyon has issued cards to relatives for the marriage of her daughter, Maude Augusta to Mr. Charles E. Schroeder, to take place Wednesday, November 27, at noon, at the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church.

Mr. George L. Wilkinson and wife, formerly Miss Emily F. Tennessee, will be pleased to see their friends at No. 1526 K street northwest, the residence of Mr. Wilkinson's parents, Monday, November 25 and Tuesday, November 26, at 10 o'clock.

Miss Sue Tyler Hyde and Mr. Eben Grant Dodge, of Orange, N. J., were married Thursday morning at the residence of Mrs. Granville Farquhar Hyde, No. 3009 Dumbarton avenue. Rev. Robert S. W. Wood officiated, and only the immediate family were present. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Thomas Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Dodge left later for the North.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Crosson have returned to the city and are at their home, No. 818 Nineteenth street northwest, where they will be at home Saturdays during December.

Mrs. R. M. Schofield, wife of Lieut. R. M. Schofield, U. S. A., is the guest of Rev. Dr. J. A. Harrold, No. 1768 Oregon avenue.

Mrs. Cleveland accompanies the President on every visit to the White House, frequently handling the ribbons as they drive in. She is looking rosy and bright, and is apparently enjoying her stay at her country home.

Mrs. James H. Austin and her daughter, Miss Hattie, will visit the Yehowh house to Atlanta to visit the exposition.

Lieut. Fletcher's wife will spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. Stebbins, on Massachusetts avenue. Lieut. Fletcher is on the Maine, which is expected to be ordered to cruise in West Indian waters.

Mrs. Warder will build a handsome home on K street, near Eighteenth, for her daughter, Mrs. Ward Theron. Ground has already been broken for it.

Mr. Hattin B. Miles has returned from his hunting trip to the Adirondacks, where he has been for the past three weeks in quest of November game.

Mrs. Elizabeth T. Spencer returned Thursday from a month's visit to her daughter, Mrs. G. M. Davis of Brooklyn.

A jolly party composed of Mr. Myron Parker, Mr. Beriah Wilkins, Mr. Chapin Brown, and Mr. Hallett Kilbourne left the city at 3.30 Thursday afternoon en route to St. Helena, Beaufort, S. C. They will make the Senator a visit of a week or ten days.

AT THE BON MARCHE

3 Snaps for Men Shoppers.

Men's Neckwear—an exclusive line of patterns in Tecks, Four-in-hands, Band Bows and Club Ties. All silk..... 23c

Men's Natural Wool Shirts and Drawers—they are 90 per cent fine lamb's wool; shirts finished with silk-stitched neck, ribbed bottom; drawers, taped seams, re-enforced seat. $1.00 value..... 73c

Men's Fancy Ribbed Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, winter weight; extra value at 50c..... 43c

Bon Marche,

314-316 Seventh St. N. W.

days, and the most arduous duty required of them is that they must and kill the wild turkey with which they are served at dinner Thanksgiving Day. "Coffee" is the cheerful name of Senator Cameron's place, but those who have been fortunate to visit there say it was named because the host and everything connected with it are so exactly opposite from anything gloomy or funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. McDonough of South Washington gave a progressive euchre party Thursday in celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage, which occurred on Sunday, November 8, 1880. The parlors were eight small tables filled with guests, each eager to win the prizes at stake, a silver smoking set and bronze banquet lamp, that in the center of the room glowed with its flower-wreathed shade.

At the conclusion of the allotted games it was evident that Mrs. Melina Ferris and Mr. J. H. Stebbins, the subject of the party, were the winners. The subject of the party, Mrs. Stebbins, a beautiful blonde, going without contest to Col. H. G. Greene. At the close of the pleasant evening the guests were served. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Spaulding of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard, and Mrs. Walter Ackland, Mr. and Mrs. F. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Miller, Miss Nellie Ferguson, Miss Daisy Ackland, Miss J. H. Stebbins, Miss Nellie Ackland, J. J. Hobbins, Mr. Benjamin A. Williams, Mr. Horace White, Miss A. Benson and Mr. Walter Price.

The friends of Miss Florella will be pleased to learn that she is convalescing from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Lyon will leave Monday for a brief trip south, returning by way of Atlanta.

Miss Mabel Thompson of New York avenue is visiting friends in Boston.

Mrs. J. G. Reeves of Chicago is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Meade, Jr., of No. 204 Pennsylvania avenue southeast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wright and daughter, Miss Mary, of O street, sailed for Europe yesterday.

Hon. C. M. Cooper and family are located for the season at No. 1743 I street.

Miss Kitty McElwaine will leave shortly for Germany to complete her musical studies under the tutelage of her mother's brother, Herr Emil Strauss, of Berlin.

Miss Minnie Dierken was given a pleasant surprise at her home, No. 8 I street, last Wednesday night. Music, dancing and games were indulged in until a late hour, when a dainty collation was served. Among the party were: The Misses May Bell, Bertha McCarthy, Daisy and May Brown, Katie Goulin, Maudie O'Connor, Agnes K. Brown, Miss Clara, Maggie Cunningham, Irene Lawlor, and Jennie Dierken, and the Messrs. Joseph Burke, Daniel Cox, Richard Carlin, Daniel McKee, Michael Weston, and John H. D. First, Second, and Third prizes were won by the ladies.

At the marriage of Miss Daisy Gurnan to Mr. Richard Johnson at the German residence at 200 Oxford, London, "next Tuesday," the bride and groom will be present at the ceremony and wedding breakfast. There will be no bridesmaids or ushers. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and maiden half ferns, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George B. Clark. Miss Florence Clark was maid of honor, and wore white organdie over white silk. Mr. Smith Laneau was best man. The ushers were Misses Helen of the valley and